

THE INVERCLYDE COUNCIL

CIVIC GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACT 1982

PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT LICENCE STANDARD CONDITIONS

1. The use of the premises is restricted to the following kind or kinds of entertainment or recreation viz:-

####
2. The premises may be open for entertainment or recreation only as follows:-

####
3. The number of persons admitted to the premises shall be strictly controlled to ensure that the premises do not become overcrowded in a manner likely to endanger the safety of, or duly interfere with the comfort of, persons admitted to the premises and the maximum number of persons on the premises at any time shall not exceed the maximum number laid down in terms of the relevant Fire Certificate.
4. The premises must be and shall remain structurally sound, shall not present any danger to persons frequenting the premises and must be capable of supporting the loadings imposed in places of public assembly and the likely loading in the premises.
5. The general layout and arrangement of the premises shall be such as the Council shall consider satisfactory to allow and permit the safe and orderly evacuation of the premises in the event of fire; all approaches, staircases and passageways shall be kept entirely free from obstruction, no seat or other obstruction shall be placed in any of the gangways or passageways of the premises and no person shall be allowed to stand in any of the said gangways or passageways when the premises are open to the public. All doors and barriers shall open outward to the satisfaction of the Council and shall not be fastened or locked except by emergency bolts when the premises are open to the public.
6. The premises will be constructed and maintained in such a way as to minimise any risk of fire involving the elements of structure of the premises.
7. Cloakroom and sanitary accommodation shall be provided to the satisfaction of the Council.
8. Any kitchen or other food preparation areas within the premises shall, at all times, comply with the Food Hygiene Regulations.
9. All noise (including amplified music and speech) shall be controlled in such a manner as not to cause a nuisance in terms of the Control of Pollution Act 1974 and all instructions given regarding the modulation of such noise given by the Council's Head of Legal & Property Services, Head of Safer & Inclusive Communities or other authorised Officer with a view to minimising or avoiding nuisance or annoyance to the general public shall be complied with.
10. The Public Entertainment Licence and these conditions shall be displayed in the premises at all times in such a way and in such a place as they may be easily seen and read by members of the public using the premises.
11. The Fire Safety Officer, any Police Constable and any Officer of the Council shall be permitted free access to the premises at any time.

12. No exhibition to which the Hypnotism Act 1952 applies shall take place in the premises without the prior written consent of the Council who, in granting such consent, may impose such conditions as they consider fit and proper.
13. All electrical equipment used for the provision of entertainment in terms of this Licence must be fitted with an RCCB (circuit breaker).
14. The Licence Holder shall inform the Council of any change of address, whether permanent or temporary, as shown in this Licence within 7 days of such change of address: any change of address intimated to the Council shall not be treated as a Variation of Licence and the Licence shall be amended at the cost of the Council.