The duties of the Parish Councils were in turn transferred to town or district councils after the 1929 Local Government (Scotland) Act. Following the 1929 Local Government (Scotland) Act, Renfrewshire County Council took responsibility for the administration of the County. The large towns of Paisley, Greenock and Port Glasgow were responsible for all local services except education, valuation and electoral registration, which were County responsibilities. The smaller towns of Renfrew, including Inverkip and Kilmacolm were confined to more local matters.
