

76% of primary school pupils are achieving expected or better levels in literacy.

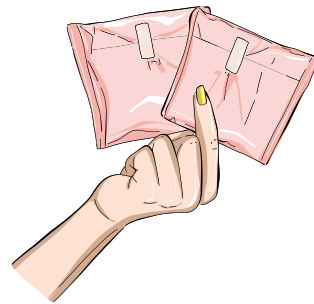

The Summer Holiday Programme provided more than 9000 out of school childcare places from priority families over a four-week period

83% of primary school pupils are achieving expected or better levels in numeracy.

130 local venues now offer free period products.

18% of households in Inverclyde are workless, compared to 17% in Scotland.