What we take off (deductions)

Take-home pay

- £312.52

Take-home pay is what's left after tax, National Insurance and any pension contributions have been deducted.

Earnings reported by your employer

£1,241.21

---

The amount we'll use to work out your Universal Credit is £1,241.21

Your total take-home pay for this period is £1,241.21

The first £673.00 of your take-home pay does not affect your Universal Credit monthly amount. Every £1.00 you earn in take-home pay over this amount reduces your Universal Credit by 55 pence.

Money, savings and investments

- £0.00

We have taken £0.00 off your Universal Credit payment because you have money, savings and investments of £500.11.

You must tell us if this changes so that we can pay you the correct amount on time. You can do this in the 'Report a change of circumstance' section of your online account.

The first £6,000 of your money, savings and investments does not affect your payment. If you have over £6,000 up to £16,000, every £250 reduces your Universal Credit by £4.35. For any remaining amount that is not a complete £250, a further £4.35 is also deducted.
