

Inverclyde Council Area - Community Council Elections 2015

Greenock East Community Council

Holefarm and Cowdenknowes Community Council

Elections are to be held for Members of the Community Councils in the Inverclyde area.

Greenock East Community Council and Holefarm and Cowdenknowes Community Council are not currently constituted. It is therefore a requirement that the Inverclyde Council receives a written request from at least 20 electors residing in each these Community Council areas, to allow each of the Community Councils to be constituted.

Therefore, the Inverclyde Council invites:

- an application from at least 20 electors residing in the Greenock East Community Council area, by way of a letter signed by those electors, requesting that the Greenock East Community Council be established, by no later than 4pm on 30 September 2015; and
- an application from at least 20 electors residing in the Holefarm and Cowdenknowes Community Council area, by way of a letter signed by those electors, requesting that the Holefarm and Cowdenknowes Council be established, by no later than 4pm on 30 September 2015.

These are requested by no later than 4pm on 30 September 2015 to allow any elections for Greenock East Community Council or Holefarm and Cowdenknowes Community Council to be run in conjunction the elections for the other Community Councils in the Inverclyde Area.

More information on Community Councils in Inverclyde, including details of the various Community Council areas, can be found on the Council website on www.inverclyde.gov.uk/communitycouncils.

In addition to receiving the above applications, to allow a Community Council to be constituted, there will required to be a minimum number of valid nominations received for each. A formal Notice of Election has been issued inviting nominations for membership of those Community Councils. Details of the nomination process, including the nomination forms, can be found on the Inverclyde Council website at www.inverclyde.gov.uk/ccelection.

Nomination forms must be fully completed and delivered to the Customer Service Centre marked for the attention of the Head of Legal and Property Services no later than 4pm on 30 September 2015.
