CENTRAL GREENOCK STATUES TRAIL

A CELEBRATION OF HISTORY, HERITAGE & PEOPLE

Statues Trail

This is a self guided heritage walking trail of the statues, plinths, plaques, memorials and street furniture of central Greenock. It is not totally comprehensive.

More information on Inverclyde statues, plaques etc is available from the drop down menu 'What's in Inverclyde' at www.inverclydetouristgroup.co.uk

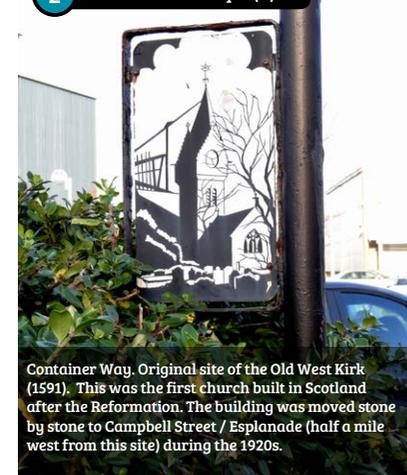

'R' beside the name indicates there is a Roundel in the pavement with more information contained in the Greenock Town Trail booklet.

1 Erigea

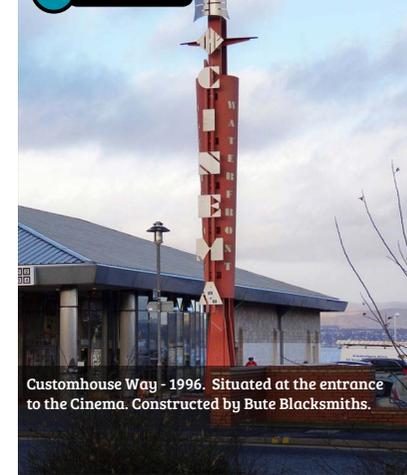

West Blackhall St - Andy Scott - 2013. Erigea is a mythical wood nymph who will bring good luck to the town. Look out for the poems engraved on the pavement.

2 Old West Kirk Plaque (R)

Container Way. Original site of the Old West Kirk (1591). This was the first church built in Scotland after the Reformation. The building was moved stone by stone to Campbell Street / Esplanade (half a mile west from this site) during the 1920s.

3 Totem Pole

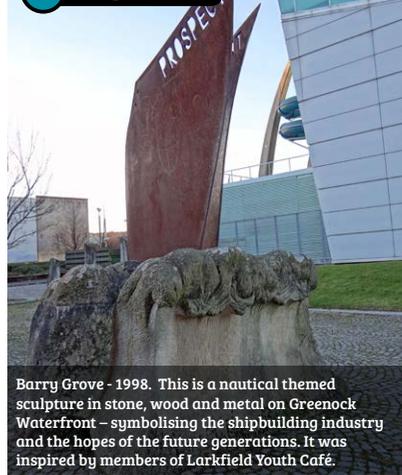

Customhouse Way - 1996. Situated at the entrance to the Cinema. Constructed by Bute Blacksmiths.

4 Time, Tide And Trade

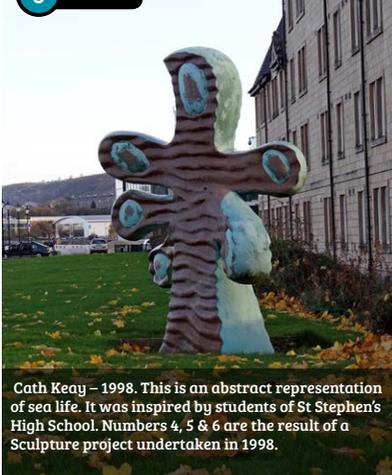

Kathleen Gibson - 1998. This is situated on Greenock Waterfront. This is a contemporary reflection of shipbuilding history and future hopes. It was inspired by students from Notre Dame High School.

5 Prospect/Trust

Barry Grove - 1998. This is a nautical themed sculpture in stone, wood and metal on Greenock Waterfront - symbolising the shipbuilding industry and the hopes of the future generations. It was inspired by members of Larkfield Youth Café.

6 Sealife

Cath Keay - 1998. This is an abstract representation of sea life. It was inspired by students of St Stephen's High School. Numbers 4, 5 & 6 are the result of a Sculpture project undertaken in 1998.

7 The Beacon

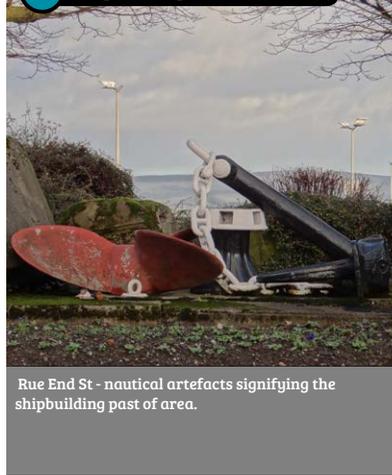

Customhouse Quay - William Clark - 1868. Multifunctional beacon with a weather vane, bell, light, clock, drinking well and post box. Constructed by Rankin and Blackmore, Eagle Foundry, Baker Street, Greenock.

8 Anchor

Gardens at Customhouse Place - 1972. This is an Admiralty Plan Anchor which was presented to the town of Greenock by the Admiralty to recognise its long association with the town.

9 Propeller/Capstan/Anchor

Rue End St - nautical artefacts signifying the shipbuilding past of area.

10 Cairn

Cartsburn West roundabout - 2012. This is the original site of Scotts' shipyard. This Cairn commemorates 300 years of shipbuilding and engineering in the area. The cairn was funded by local Community Councils. This is a cast of the original plaque from Scotts' offices.

11 Fire Station

Rue End Street - 2002. The Cairn was erected by the firefighters of Inverclyde to commemorate the tragic events in New York on 11 September 2001 (9/11).

12 Ginger The Horse

Cathcart St. - Andy Scott - 2011. This statue commemorates the horses who worked in local industry. Look out for the panels which surround the statue giving further information.

OPTION

Turn left on to Terrace Road and ascend the steps to Well Park otherwise continue along Cathcart Street to No. 17, Long Well. Leave Well Park by steps at west end on to Bank Street.

13 Well Park Well

1629 built in Scottish Renaissance style. Short columns support a pyramid top. Site of the original Schaw family Mansion House (see information in the park for details).

14 Well Park War Memorial

Alex Proudfoot - 1924. The base of the memorial depicts a Viking ship with Victory holding a laurel wreath. On the cross are symbols representing sea, land and air. Other symbolism is evident.

15 Memorial Wall

Bank Street - James Gordon - 2015. This wall gives the names of the citizens who were killed in the Reform Riot in 1820. Commissioned by Riverview Players.

16 Ring Of Bronze

Radical War Memorial - Bank Street - Angela Hunter - 2015. This commemorates the death of 8 citizens killed in the Reform Riot in 1820. Commissioned by Riverside Inverclyde and Inverclyde Council.

17 Long Well

Duff St - 1682. Site of one of the main wells used by people in central Greenock.

18 Horseshoe

Cathcart Square. This marks the site of the gallows which were used for public hangings between 1812 and 1834.
