Artists Listed in Greenock Street Directories 1836-1911

The Greenock Post Office directories were published annually and listed individuals by profession. This listing includes all those who called 'artists' by the Greenock Street Directories during the period 1836-1911. The term artist covered a range of professions and capabilities from the amateur artist, professional theatrical scene painters, artist photographers and so forth to first class professionals earning their living as portrait, landscape and marine painters with reputations beyond the purely local and exhibiting on the national stage. Where the birth and death dates of the artist are known these have been added to the entry.
