Subject: Consultation on Inverclyde's Draft Antisocial Behaviour Strategy

2020-2025

1.0 PURPOSE

1.1 The purpose of this report is to seek approval to consult on Inverclyde's draft Antisocial Behaviour Strategy 2020-2025 which will replace the current strategy.

1.2 The report provides Members with an outline of the legislative requirements placed on the local authority, a draft of the new strategy and a proposed outline of an Inverclyde wide consultation to gather the views and experiences of members of the public on the draft strategy.

2.0 SUMMARY

- 2.1 The Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004 (The Act) places a duty on each local authority and Chief Constable to jointly prepare, publish, review and revise a strategy to tackle Antisocial Behaviour (ASB) in the authority's area. The current strategy for Inverclyde expires in March 2020.
- 2.2 The Inverclyde Community Safety Partnership Strategy Group agreed the development of a new Inverclyde Antisocial Behaviour Strategy at its meeting on 5 June 2019.
- 2.3 A short term working group (STWG) was convened, comprising partners from Inverclyde Council, Police Scotland, Cloch Housing Association, Larkfield/Link Housing Association, Oak Tree Housing Association and River Clyde Homes. The STWG has produced a draft strategy which is attached as an appendix, and proposes the creation of a policy document which sets out, in detail, agency responses to antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde once the final strategy is approved.

3.0 RECOMMENDATIONS

- 3.1 It is recommended that the Education and Communities Committee:
 - 1. notes the draft Inverclyde Antisocial Behaviour Strategy 2020-2025 for consultation;
 - 2. approves a community consultation seeking the views and experiences of individuals and community groups in respect of antisocial behaviour; and
 - 3. agrees to consider the finalised Inverclyde Antisocial Behaviour Strategy 2020-2025 in March 2020.

4.0 BACKGROUND

- 4.1 The Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004 (The Act) is the primary legislation for dealing with antisocial behaviour in Scotland. The Act sets out a range of responses made available to local authorities and Police Scotland, ranging from the requirement of Local Authorities to jointly prepare and produce an antisocial behaviour strategy, to the dispersal of groups, closure of premises, dealing with noise nuisance and the environment, the regulation and registration of certain landlords as well as the application of Antisocial Behaviour Orders.
- 4.2 Part 1 of The Act places a statutory responsibility on a local authority and Police to prepare an antisocial behaviour strategy for the authority area. The Act also requires the strategy to specify a number of local arrangements which will:
 - outline the key principles, strategic context and the aims and objectives of the local authority and the Chief Constable in dealing with antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 1(1) of The Act);
 - set out an assessment of the extent and type of occurrences of antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 3(a) of The Act);
 - specify local arrangements for consulting and engaging with community bodies and other people (including young people) in each area where there are (or likely to be) occurrences of antisocial behaviour, on how to prevent and tackle antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 3(c) of The Act);
 - specify the range of available services designed to prevent or tackle antisocial behaviour, which are available to all residents in Inverclyde (Section 3(d) of The Act);
 - set out the range of available services designed to support victims of antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 3(e) of The Act);
 - specify the ways in which members of the public can report antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 3(e) of The Act);
 - outline the provision of mediation in relation to disputes arising from antisocial behaviour (Section 3(e) of The Act);
 - describe how Inverclyde Council and the Chief Constable of Police Scotland will coordinate the discharge of the functions in relation to tackling antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 3(f) of The Act);
 - provide for the lawful exchange of information relating to antisocial behaviour between Inverclyde Council, the Chief Constable of Police Scotland, and any other relevant person (Section 3(f) of The Act); and
 - outline the mechanism for keeping this strategy under review (Section 4(a) of The Act).
- 4.3 In preparing, reviewing and revising an antisocial behaviour strategy, The Act requires the local authority to consult:
 - the Principal Reporter;
 - registered social landlords which provide or manage property in the authority's area;
 and
 - such community bodies and other local persons as the local authority considers appropriate.
- 4.4 The Inverclyde Antisocial Behaviour Strategy 2020-2025 is the fourth strategy for Inverclyde, building upon the significant progress made by partners to address antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde. In order to prepare this strategy a short term working group (STWG) made up of partners from within the Inverclyde Community Safety Partnership was convened.
- 4.5 Contained within the Inverclyde Antisocial Behaviour Strategy 2020-2025 is an outline of the local and national context of responding to antisocial behaviour, the various responses to antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde, and an assessment of antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde.
 - With respect to the assessment of antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde, the strategy shows the extent of antisocial behaviour complaints, within Inverclyde, made to Inverclyde Council and Police Scotland between April 2016 and March 2019 noting that:

- in 2018/19, overall, antisocial behaviour complaints made to Inverclyde Council reduced by 39% compared to 2016/17;
- in 2018/19, overall, antisocial behaviour complaints made to Police Scotland reduced by 19% compared to 2016/17; and
- a comparison of the six locality areas in Inverclyde over the period 2017/18 to 2018/19 indicates that almost all areas witnessed a reduction in antisocial behaviour complaints made to Inverclyde Council and Police Scotland with the exception of Greenock West and Gourock, which increased by 2%.
- 4.6 While the legislative requirement for the completion of the strategy lies with the local authority, the Community Safety Partnership Coordinating Group has responsibility for the coordination of the delivery of responding to antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde. As such, the Coordinating Group has identified a need for a policy document which sets out how services and agencies respond to antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde particularly when a partnership response is required. This policy document has been identified as an improvement action and will be progressed during year one of the strategy. In addition to this, other responses to antisocial behaviour have been identified within the Community Safety Strategic Assessment and are subject to regular review.

5.0 PROPOSALS

- 5.1 In order to meet the legislative requirements of The Act, the Short Term Working Group has drafted the next Inverclyde Antisocial Behaviour 2020-2025 for consultation.
- 5.2 As set out in section 4.6 there is a requirement to consult with a number of bodies, community groups and individuals when preparing an antisocial behaviour strategy. This consultation will:
 - establish if members of the public have been affected by antisocial behaviour and the type of antisocial behaviour that they have experienced;
 - the agency/agencies that the antisocial behaviour had been reported to; and
 - views on how partners can better respond to antisocial behaviour.

The consultation will be available for residents to respond online as well as paper based copies being available at Council and CSP Partnership offices (where possible). Community safety partners will publicise the consultation on their own media platforms.

5.3 The following timeline is proposed in respect of consultation and completion of the Inverclyde Antisocial Behaviour Strategy 2020-2025:

Consultation period opens	11 November 2019 to 20 December 2019
Draft Inverclyde Antisocial Behaviour Strategy and consultation	8 January 2020

Joint Foreword

The Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004 requires the Local Authority and Chief Constable of Police Scotland to produce a strategy for dealing with antisocial behavior. This strategy has been endorsed by the Inverclyde Alliance Board and the Inverclyde Community Safety Partnership highlighting the breadth of partners involved who respond to antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde.

This strategy sets out the several legislative requirements of the Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004. In addition to this the Community Safety Partnership will also produce an Antisocial Behaviour Policy document, which sets out in more detail, how agencies will respond to antisocial behaviour in Invercible.

Whilst overall incidents of antisocial behaviour reported to both Inverclyde Council and Police Scotland have reduced over the previous three years, partners acknowledge that antisocial behaviour can have a serious impact on the lives of our residents and have a negative impact on communities across Inverclyde.

The Community Safety Partnership and the Inverciyde Alliance is committed to continuing to develop co-ordinated, effective, efficient services together, meeting the needs of our communities and delivering better outcomes for all. This partnership has a central role in tackling anti-social behavior. Together, we will continue to deliver better, more targeted responses and services using the resources we share.

Councillor Stephen McCabe - Leader of Inverclyde Council and Chair of Inverclyde Alliance

Chief Superintendent Alan Murray - Divisional Commander for Renfrewshire and Inverclyde Division

Section One: Introduction

Antisocial Behaviour is defined in Section 143 of the Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004 (The Act) if an individual "acts in a manner that causes or is likely to cause alarm or distress; or pursues a course of conduct that causes or is likely to cause alarm or distress, to at least one person who is not of the same household". The legislation requires that "conduct includes speech; and a course of conduct must involve conduct on at least two occasions".

Part 1 of The Act places a duty on the Local Authority and the Police to prepare an Antisocial Behaviour Strategy for the authority area. This strategy, in line with the legislation, will:

- outline the key principles, strategic context and the aims and objectives of the local authority and the Chief Constable in dealing with antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 1-1);
- set out an assessment of the extent and type of occurrences of antisocial behaviour in Inverciyde (Section 3a);
- specify local arrangements for consulting and engaging with community bodies and other people (including young people) in each area where there are (or likely to be) occurrences of antisocial behaviour, on how to prevent and tackle antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 3c);
- specify the range of available services designed to prevent or tackle antisocial behaviour, which are available to all residents in Inverclyde (Section 3d);
- set out the range of available services designed to support victims of antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 3e);
- specify the ways in which members of the public can report antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 3e);
- outline the provision of mediation in relation to disputes arising from antisocial behaviour (Section 3e);
- describe how Inverclyde Council and the Chief Constable of Police Scotland will co-ordinate the discharge of the functions in relation to tackling antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde (Section 3f);
- provide for the lawful exchange of information relating to antisocial behaviour between Inverclyde Council, the Chief Constable of Police Scotland, and any other relevant person (Section 3f); and
- outline the mechanism for keeping this strategy under review (Section 4a).

Section Two: Context

National

The Antisocial Behaviour etc (Scotland) Act 2004 is the primary legislation for dealing with antisocial behaviour in Scotland. The Act sets out a range of responses made available to local authorities and Police Scotland ranging from the requirement of Local Authorities to jointly prepare and produce an antisocial behaviour strategy, to the dispersal of groups, closure of premises, dealing with noise nuisance and the environment, the regulation and registration of certain landlords as well as the application of Antisocial Behaviour Orders. There are also a number of other pieces of legislation which supports responses to antisocial behaviour such as:

- Human Rights Act 1998;
- Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000;
- Housing (Scotland) Act 2001;
- Equality Act 2010;
- Housing (Scotland) Act 2010;
- Housing (Scotland) Act 2014; and
- Data Protection Act 2018.

"Promoting Positive Outcomes: Working Together to Prevent Antisocial Behaviour in Scotland" (2009) is the Scottish Government's national framework for tackling antisocial behaviour. The framework introduced four pillars to respond to antisocial behavior: prevention, integration, engagement and communication. Key to achieving the aims of the prevention pillar was an update to a PIER (Prevention, early Intervention, Enforcement and Rehabilitation) model as introduced in national guidance in 2004. The Promoting Positive Outcomes document defined the components of the PIER model as:

- prevention: This requires foresight and planning and putting measures in place which are likely to create a physical and social environment where antisocial behaviour is less likely to arise. Such measures can start before the antisocial behaviour is evident through a programme of proactive elements such as CCTV and a strong focus on education, support, community engagement and the creation of strong sustainable family environments;
- intervention: Early and effective intervention includes putting in place measures that will help to address problems at the earliest opportunity both in relation to individuals and communities. A variety of approaches and services from a range of statutory and voluntary agencies are needed to provide the choices and chances required to offer opportunities to divert people away from antisocial behaviour;

- enforcement: Enforcement should be considered when effective interventions have been tried, failed or deemed not appropriate.
 Enforcement requires to be appropriate, proportionate and timely and supported by intervention, education, support and rehabilitation; and
- rehabilitation: There is a need to understand and assess the needs of individuals and communities in order to provide long-term solutions. An understanding and perception of the impact of anti-social behaviour is necessary to fully break the cycle of offending and to provide the focus for services to fully integrate to deliver long-term solutions.

Education and support are a vital thread throughout and are crucial to the success of each individual component of the revised PIER model.

The Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act 2015 places a legal duty on community planning partners to demonstrate they are making a significant difference to the lives of their residents through the planning and delivery of local outcomes and the involvement of community bodies at all stages of community planning.

The National Performance Framework (NPF) provides a clear vision for Scotland with broad measures of national wellbeing covering a range of economic, health, social and environmental indicators and targets. In respect of antisocial behaviour the relevant national outcome is communities, where 'we live in communities that are inclusive, empowered, resilient and safe'.

Local

The Inverciyde Alliance (Community Planning Partnership) provides the overarching strategic direction for tackling antisocial behaviour in Inverciyde. The Inverciyde Antisocial Behaviour Strategy will be scrutinised by the Community Safety Partnership Strategic Group which is made up of representatives from Inverciyde Council, Police Scotland, Inverciyde HSCP, The Scottish Fire & Rescue Service, Scottish Ambulance Service, Inverciyde Housing Association Forum, CVS Inverciyde and Your Voice Inverciyde.

The Inverclyde Outcomes Improvement Plan 2017/22 sets out the outcomes that the community planning partners in Inverclyde, known as the Inverclyde Alliance, will seek to improve. This in turn should improve the wellbeing and quality of life of the residents of Inverclyde, with a particular focus on reducing inequality and poverty.

The Outcomes Improvement Plan focuses on three key priority areas: Repopulation; Reducing Inequalities; and Environment, Culture and Heritage.

There are also a number of other local key policy documents which are set out in detail at Appendix 1 to this strategy.

Section Three: Strategic Themes

As noted in section two, The Inverclyde Outcomes Improvement Plan 2017/22 sets out the outcomes that the community planning partners in Inverclyde, known as the Inverclyde Alliance, will seek to improve.

The Community Safety Partnership Strategy Group endorsed a Community Safety Strategic Assessment in 2018 which has three outcomes of reducing violence, crime and disorder in our communities; reducing unintentional harm and injury in our communities; and promoting community resilience. There is an associated improvement action plan across the three outcomes with antisocial behaviour related improvements in the reducing violence, crime and disorder outcome and promoting community resilience outcome.

As noted in the previous section, the publication of the Promoting Positive Outcomes framework in 2009 saw the revision of four core elements to responding to antisocial behaviour (PIER model) which has been adopted in previous Inverclyde antisocial behaviour strategies. The following is a broad list of approaches to the PIER model in Inverclyde from the various community safety partners.

Prevention

We will

- introduce resources designed to divert people from behaving in an antisocial manner;
- put in place measures that will create an environment where antisocial behaviour is less likely to occur. This includes the use of permanent and mobile CCTV facilities as well as inspections of areas where antisocial behaviour is occurring and opportunities to reduce antisocial behaviour;
- ensure our local housing providers have an appropriate Allocations Policy;
- make use of media designed to prevent and tackle antisocial behaviour;
- undertake, where appropriate, joint Police/Community Warden patrols in areas affected by antisocial behaviour;
- work with relevant bodies to encourage the responsible sale of age restricted products; and
- work with relevant bodies to deliver community safety/antisocial behaviour messages within schools and youth work settings.

Early Intervention

We will

- identify those who behave antisocially at the earliest possible stage through effective information sharing;
- send advice letters to parents if a child/young person has been found acting

Draft Inverclyde Antisocial Behaviour Strategy 2020-2025

in an antisocial manner. This letter may be sent either by Police Scotland or Inverclyde Council;

- deploy resources via the use of multiagency tasking and coordinating arrangements;
- use community mediation whereby neighbourhood disputes can be dealt with and resolved at an early stage;
- work alongside and assist private landlords in addressing the antisocial behaviour of their tenants; and
- through the Community Learning and Development Youth Work Sub Group work with partners to provide diversionary activities for young people

Enforcement

We will

- to appropriately use the powers made available to us under the Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004, the Housing Scotland Act 2014 and other relevant legislation;
- to use the powers made available to Police Scotland by the Lord Advocate in respect of antisocial behaviour Fixed Penalty Notices and Recorded Police Warnings. Offences and legislation for which an antisocial behaviour Fixed Penalty Notice can be issued are listed under Part II of the Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004; and
- to proportionately apply to the Sheriff Court for Antisocial Behaviour Orders (ASBOs) and evictions, serving Fixed Penalty Notices and using powers under Parts 7 and 8 of the Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004 in respect of private landlords.

Rehabilitation

We will

- use the Rapid Rehousing Transition Plan (RRTP) which is a new planning framework for local authorities and their partners to transition to a rapid rehousing approach. The RRTP and the Housing First options seeks to offer appropriate support to those people who experience homelessness in Inverclyde and are likely to experience complex support needs including those affected by of the perpetrators of antisocial behavior; and
- use short Scottish secure tenancy for antisocial behaviour (Short SST) by social landlords to encourage tenants or members of their household who repeatedly engage in antisocial behaviour, to stop the behaviour and sustain their tenancy, by removing some of their tenancy rights without the need for court action. Conversion of a full Scottish Secure Tenancy to a Short SST will allow perpetrators of anti-social behaviour to receive support that will assist them to change conduct which may allow them and members of their neighbourhood to sustain their tenancies long term.

Section Four

Assessment of Antisocial Behaviour in Inverclyde

The following charts show the extent of antisocial behaviour complaints within Inverclyde made to Inverclyde Council and Police Scotland between April 2016 and March 2019, with a comparison made to the periods April 2017 to March 2018 and April 2016 to March 2017.

In terms of locations, the graphs are split into locality areas. For more information on

Anti-Social Complaints to Inverclyde Council

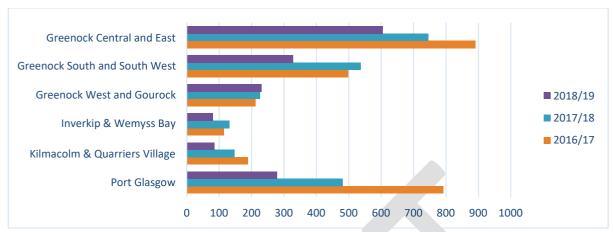

Chart 1 – Number of ASB incidents reported to Inverciyde Council, by locality area

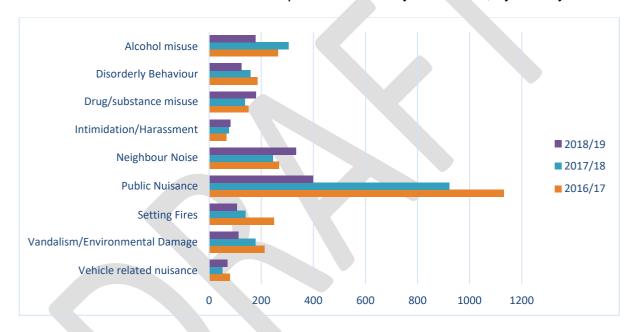

Chart 2 – Number of ASB incidents reported to Inverclyde Council, by type of complaint

All areas witnessed a reduction in antisocial complaints made to Inverclyde Council with the exception of Greenock West & Gourock, which increased by 2% from 2017/2018 to 2018/2019. Both Kilmacolm & Quarriers Village and Port Glasgow recorded the biggest fall 42% from 2017/2018 to 2018/2019. Overall, antisocial behaviour complaints reduced by 39% compared to 2016/2017.

Complaints of public nuisance reduced by 57% in 2018/19 compared to 2017/2018. Alcohol misuse calls reduced by 42% over the same period. Neighbour noise and drug/ substance misuse calls increased by 36% and 31% respectively over the same period.

Anti-Social complaints to Police Scotland

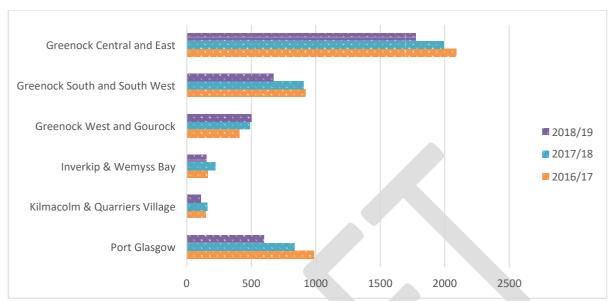

Chart 3 – Number of ASB incidents reported to Police Scotland, by locality area

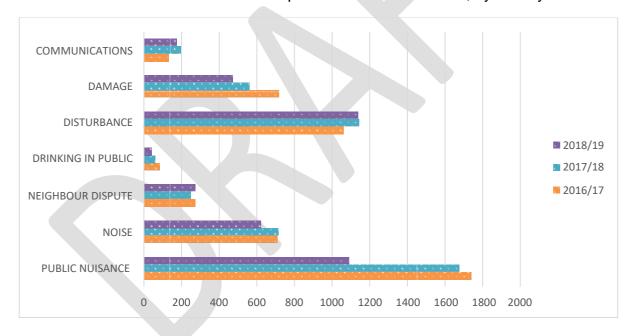

Chart 4 – Number of ASB incidents reported to Police Scotland, by type of complaint

All areas witnessed a reduction in antisocial complaints made to Police Scotland with the exception of Greenock West & Gourock, which increased by 3% from 2017/2018 to 2018/2019. Kilmacolm & Quarriers Village recorded the biggest fall of 32% followed by Inverkip & Wemyss Bay with a reduction of 31% from 2017/2018 to 2018/2019. Overall, antisocial behaviour complaints reduced by 19% compared to 2016/2017.

Complaints of public nuisance reduced by 35% in 2018/19 compared to 2017/2018. Noise reduced by 13% over the same period. Neighbour disputes increased by 10% over the same period.

Section Five

Community Engagement

There is provision for 11 Community Councils across Inverclyde, with representatives from Police Scotland and Inverclyde Council's Community Warden Service attending meetings allowing both services to provide an update of activity within the community council area as well as giving the Community Council the opportunity to raise issues with both services. In addition to this, Inverclyde Council's Community Safety Unit produces a monthly community safety report. A copy of this can be accessed using this link:

https://www.inverclyde.gov.uk/community-life-and-leisure/community-safety-and-resilience/community-safety/community-safety-reports

In addition, there are a number of other community based groups across Inverclyde who also regularly engage directly with Police Scotland and Inverclyde Council's Community Warden Service.

There is also the opportunity to engage with a number of communities of interest groups across Inverclyde such as youth related groups, health based groups and other groups within Inverclyde.

Section Six

Resources and Services

The list below provides examples of the range of resources and services in Inverclyde who can respond to antisocial behaviour. A comprehensive review of resources and services is contained within the Antisocial Behaviour Policy Document (to be completed).

All partners recognise the impact that antisocial behaviour can have on those who are experiencing it.

Inverclyde Council operates a Community Warden Service who respond to calls as well as provide proactive patrols relating to community safety issues and antisocial behaviour. Community Wardens are operational from 13:00hrs to 23:30hrs and can be contacted on 0800 01 317 01 when incidents of antisocial behaviour are occurring.

Members of the public can also speak to an antisocial behaviour investigator to discuss options or seek advice and can be contacted between 09:00hrs and 17:00hrs on 01475 714204.

Reports of antisocial behaviour can also be made via email to ASBINT@inverclyde.gov.uk

All Local Authorities have a duty to investigate and control noise nuisance within their area. Within Inverclyde Council this role is carried out by the Environmental Protection Team which is part of the Council's Environmental and Public Protection Service. The team works in partnership with the Social Protection Team in providing in an out of hours service which allows officers to visit complaints out with office hours. Other partnership links exist with the Social Protection Team, the Community Wardens and Police Scotland in order to provide a joint approach towards reducing anti-social behaviour.

Section Eight

The Provision of Mediation Services

Inverclyde Council offers an accredited Community Mediation service to help people in conflict find practical solutions to their difficulties. Mediation can help if people are experiencing difficulties with a next door neighbour or neighbours in a street. It may also involve a number of neighbours.

Community mediation is a confidential and impartial process which helps neighbours find a solution to their problem and can cover a wide range of issues such as noise, antisocial behaviour, use of communal areas etc.

An agency may make a referral on behalf of a resident with their consent of members of the public can contact the Mediation Service directly by telephone on 715922, by email Community.Mediation@inverclyde.gov.uk or via the online form at www.inverclyde.gov.uk/mediation

Section Nine

Information Sharing

Section 139 of The Act contains provisions that allow agencies involved in tackling antisocial behaviour to share relevant information. There are a number of relevant information sharing protocols as well as meeting forums where relevant information can be shared.

Section Ten

Review of the Strategy

The Community Safety Partnership Coordinating Group has responsibility for the delivery of the Community Safety Partnership Strategic Assessment which includes the provision of responding to antisocial behaviour. The Coordinating Group will provide an annual update to the Community Safety Partnership Strategy Group (parent group).

The Coordinating Group has identified a need for a policy document which sets out how services and agencies respond to antisocial behaviour in Inverclyde particularly when a partnership response is required. This policy document has been identified as an improvement action and will be progressed during year one of the strategy. In addition to this, other responses to antisocial behaviour issues have been identified within the Community Safety Strategic Assessment and are subject to regular review and scrutiny.

As this strategy runs from 2020 – 2025, a review and revised strategy will be developed in 2025.
